

Hello I chose this picture because It is my favorite of all.

During the mobility we were involved in many social activities.

The funniest thing we did there was riding our bikes in SanRemo

I got along very well with the people there.

What marked me the most in the history of Genoa is the age from which the locality is dated.

I suggest this experience because I learned many new things.